

Working Together to Build Stronger Local Communities

The Camp Grayling JMTC and Alpena CRTC Joint Land Use Study: Grayling Community Update and Input Meeting

Tuesday, October 10, 2017 | 6:00 pm – 7:00 pm

Camp Grayling Joint Maneuver Training Center, Grayling Township, MI 49739
Building #3 inside the Main Gate

Do you live, work, or recreate near Camp Grayling?

Would you like to hear the top issues and concerns your neighbors raised about the compatibility of military training activities with surrounding communities?

Do you want the opportunity to share your opinion on priority issues and help identify possible solutions?

Residents participating in the SWOT analysis during the June JLUS public meeting.

Northeast Michigan Council of Governments (NEMCOG) invites you to participate in the second community meeting in the JLUS project that will address the issues related to Camp Grayling JMTC training activities and community compatibility. Join staff from Camp Grayling, local community officials, and other interested residents and business owners. Learn about the JLUS project—what it has accomplished so far, where the process is going, and have an opportunity to provide your opinion on priority issues.

You are also invited to attend:
